Poire Granit, Eric Bordelet, Chateau de Hauteville, Normandy 2016

A seasoned sommelier previously with Alan Passard, returns home to the family apple and pear orchard believing that sydre and Poiré should be produced like wine. Wow it tastes good! We have chosen to showcase his pear cider and we think it's ideal for a warm day.

Spinifex ‘Papillon’, Barossa Valley, Australia 2017

Pete Schell's Papillon, 'the butterfly' is crafted from old vine Grenache and Cinsault that date back 90 years. This is a super vibrant and juicy Barossa red wine with wonderful fragrant aromatics, plenty of red and blue fruit flavours, a combination that is pretty hard to resist.

De Trafford Straw Wine, Stellenbosch, South Africa NV

David Trafford is one of South Africa's most individual winemakers, his Straw wine has great intensity and sweetness, dried apricot and lemon, but mostly complex honey and treacle.
It's sweet yet not cloying, fresh and lively, a challenge to match but divine to drink.
